THE WEST LETTER

Public Excitement Gradually Being Allayed.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE MURCHISON LETTER.

Lord Sackville Offered Two Thousand Dollars a Week to Exhibit Himself in a Dime Museum, Two Levees to Be Held Daily of Two Hours Each—London Press Comments.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—John B. Doris, the well known ex-circus man, now proprietor of a dime museum in this city, sent the following letter by mail:

"To Right Hon. Lord Sackville-West, K. C. B., British Minister, Washington."

"MY LORD—Having read the newspapers carefully in all things pertaining to your new museum letter to Murchison, and being deeply interested in your lordship's movements, I respectfully address these lines, hoping they will receive your lordship's attention. In view of the fact that you are now, without exception, the most prominent man in American politics, and that your lordship will soon be called to your home duties, I beg, in my capacity as manager of the greatest museum in the world, to make your lordship the following offer, so you may be afforded the opportunity to properly place yourself before the American public previous to your departure. Free speech is my motto. I will pay your lordship $2,000 per week for holding two levees of two hours' duration for one week—two if you prefer them—said levees to be held daily in my museum. I will pay for your lordship and suite while here. An immediate reply will greatly oblige. Your lordship's most obedient servant,

"JOHN B. DORIS, Manager."

Doris is the husband of Ella Stokes, the rider, brother-in-law of the wealthy John Stetson, and a man with western ways and honest countenance. He says: "I mean business. I'll give his lordship all I said I would if he will let me book him, and it will pay me at that. He hasn't had a chance to right himself yet. Here's an opportunity, and a profitable one, too. I haven't heard from him yet. Perhaps he'll telegraph me. If he does I will bill him like a circus."

London Press Comments.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The London Standard, commenting on the Sackville affair, says: "Everybody in England is agreed that we have just received a deliberate affront from the government of the United States. Now, there are various ways of encountering an insult, but whatever mode of treating it he adopted the offended party ought at least to make it apparent that his conduct is not inspired by timidity or want of spirit. If he fails to do this he naturally becomes a favorite butt of all those ill-conditioned persons who love to exhibit their insolence when they can do it without fear of retaliation."

"What ought to be the response of Great Britain to the curt and summary expulsion of Lord Sackville from Washington ought we to turn our cheek to the snifter and to send another ambassador across the Atlantic and to treat the letter of Mr. Secretary Bayard and the act of Mr. Cleveland with contemptuous indifference? It is a rather strong proposal to suggest that our good natured tolerance of American presidential excesses should go to the extent of allowing the queen's representative to be treated in the face of the whole world in an offensive and insolent manner."

"It will not be for our advantage to acquire a character for tamely putting up with affronts and contumely which other states would not suffer for an instant. Writing in the most tranquil temper we are forced to say that Lord Salisbury will either have to devise some means of giving expression to the displeasure of this country, or he will fall below what is expected of him and what is due to the honor of his sovereign and his nation. Whether Mr. Phelps be or be not left here in peace, some expedient must be discovered for conveying to the government and people of the United States our sense of the unfriendliness and unmanliness of their conduct. Unless this be done what man of ordinary spirit can be expected to accept the post of representative of the cabinet of St. James at Washington?"

"Who will care to be the successor of Lord Sackville if the outrageous affront to which he has been subjected be treated as of no consequence? What, too, would be thought in Canada, in Australia, in India, even if we were disposed to permit ourselves to be insulted with impunity? It is necessary to remember that we cannot afford to do so."

The Chronicle says: "We are still waiting to learn what her majesty's government proposes to do with the insult offered to our minister, and through him to this country. Diplomatic relations between the two countries have, in the rudest possible manner, been severed by the action of President Cleveland. If President Cleveland is of the opinion that it comports with his dignified position to shame himself and his country before the O'Reillys, Collins and other Irish demagogues, and to reserve his rudeness for accredited diplomatists of friendly powers, it is not British business to attempt his conversion, but it is our duty to resent insult put upon us as promptly as it was offered."

The Daily News says: "We hear much vague abuse of American politicians, but the misfortune of America is that her citizens are not political enough. When the mass of people abandon politics to those who make of it a profession or a game, the result may not be jobbery or corruption, which are far less common in the United States than in hasty bookmakers have asserted, but certainly destroys the moral perspective of public men, so that such trifles as the temporary alteration of a respectable diplomatist are enough to convulse half the continent."

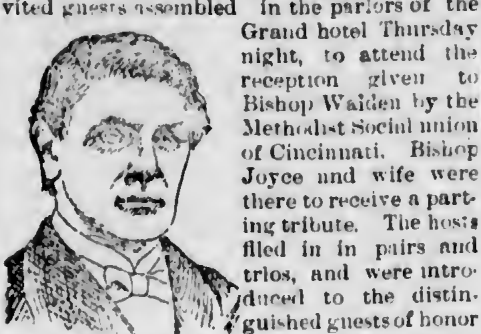

Insomnia Drives a Broker to Suicide.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 3.—William Cooke, a broker, aged seventy years, hung himself at midnight last night from a beam in the basement of his house. He was well known, and was worth $100,000. Insomnia was the cause of the suicide.

WARMLY WELCOMED.

Bishop Walden Tendered a Reception on His Arrival in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 3.—Four hundred invited guests assembled in the parlors of the Grand hotel Thursday night, to attend the reception given to Bishop Walden by the Methodist Social Union of Cincinnati. Bishop Joyce and wife were there to receive a parting tribute. The hosts filled in in pairs and trios, and were introduced to the distinguished guests of honor.

BISHOP WALDEN.

Up to 9 o'clock the good people continued to arrive. Then dinner was announced. Four lengths of table, the entire depth of the large dining hall, were immediately filled.

President Dymond called the assembly to order, and the entire body sang the verse, "Be Present at Our Table," printed on the back of the handsome menu card. After an elaborate spread served in quick successive courses by an army of waiters, Rev. Person led in prayer. President Dymond addressed the words of welcome, and Bishop Walden responded in well chosen words, telling why he chose Cincinnati as his place of abode.

Bishop Joyce, in response to a call, dwelt on the glories of the city and state he was leaving, but his eulogy on Tennessee and the city of his present abode was mountain high. Mrs. George H. Thompson then addressed the body on "Women's Work in Cincinnati," in which she defined the lines in its various directions. Mrs. Miller being absent, Mrs. Krug, the most wonderful worker in mission work in this country, was called on to address the assembly in behalf of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society. She paid the society a glowing tribute.

ASSAULTED BY ROUGHS.

General Asa Bushnell Knocked Down and Beaten Almost to Death.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Nov. 3.—A half-past 12 o'clock Friday morning Gen. Asa S. Bushnell, who was the central figure in the great Republican demonstration held here Thursday afternoon and evening, was assaulted by a gang of roughs as he was going home and badly injured. He had been detained in the city and walked home in company with J. A. Hayward. When only a short distance from his home Gen. Bushnell was accosted by a crowd, one of whom asked a question, which was courteously answered. Without warning and evidently with concerted action the crowd threw a perfect shower of stones at the general. He was knocked down and beaten by the roughs who, while they were engaged in the brutal outrage, were declaring he should never conduct another Republican meeting or be governor of Ohio. Two gang made their escape.

Gen. Bushnell was carried to his residence. His surgeon pronounced him dangerously hurt. He is terribly cut about the head and face, several of his teeth are knocked out and he is badly bruised. It is yet too soon to predict what the result may be. Police are scouring the country and city for the perpetrators of the assault, but have made no arrest. Gen. Bushnell's residence is being guarded by police, lest some further outrages be committed.

An Interrupted Seance.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 3.—J. W. Fletcher, "materializing and trumpet medium," gave a seance at 55 Carlisle avenue. Five well known citizens attended for the purpose of exposing the fraud, and they made a good job of it. Four "spirits" had emerged from the cabinet in the darkened room, when the five gentlemen suddenly flashed a pocket lantern upon it, and there was a scampering of spirits. They were caught and held by the citizens. One of them was recognized as a sewing-machine peddler named Kunkelkamp, another was his daughter and the third was a pretty little girl. Kunkelkamp, when captured, became enraged and made at Mr. J. C. Wines, one of the five gentlemen, but Mr. Wines met him with a blow on the nose. Fletcher escaped by jumping through a window to the street.

Rebellious Rectifiers.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 3.—Some time since the rectifiers of St. Louis rebelled against the whiskey trust, and formed a company for the purpose of establishing an independent distillery here. One hundred thousand dollars capital was subscribed and paid in. The project has been abandoned, and it is claimed that the trust has been instrumental in bringing about the dissolution of the St. Louis Distillery company before anything had been accomplished. Mr. J. H. Rottman, one of the St. Louis rectifiers interested, admits that the project has been dropped, but asserts that the trust had nothing to do with killing the scheme.

Brakemen Strike.

SAN BERNARDINA, Cal., Nov. 3.—The brakemen of the Santa Fe system of southern California struck yesterday, the grievances being the promotion of new men over old men. No trains are running except mail trains and a few passenger trains, which are generally short-handed. General Manager McCool was here last night endeavoring to settle the trouble.

Impaled His Nose.

WAVERLY, O., Nov. 3.—Rufus Hays, a young fellow, adopted son of P. B. Hays, banker, after doing some chores about the stable last night threw a pitchfork into the hay mow. It fell back, the prongs striking in just above the eye and impaling his nose. It is feared he will lose his sight.

Stolen Campaign Funds.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—A special to the Times from Waco, Tex., says that a package containing $4,000, belonging to the Republican National committee, was stolen by some one in the employ of the express company, some days ago at that point. There have been no arrests.

A Manager Shot.

DULUTH, Minn., Nov. 3.—Frank Hayes, formerly manager of John P. Clow, the pugilist, was shot in the stomach Friday morning by Fisky Barnett, proprietor of the Duluth theater, at West Superior. The shooting was the result of a quarrel over a woman.

CRISIS IN CANADA.

The Fishery Question Becoming a Grave One.

RETALIATORY MEASURES SOON TO BE RIGIDLY ENFORCED.

A Change Impending Between the Two Countries of the Most Serious Nature to Canada—Loyalty to the British Flag Talked of in Toronto.

HUNTSVILLE, Ont., Nov. 3.—Erastus Wiman Thursday night addressed a meeting of residents of this place. He said that it is as certain as that sun shines that a change impends on the relations between the two countries. The Canadians mistake Grover Cleveland if they think that he will stop short of his purpose in enforcing a retaliatory policy whether he triumphs or is defeated in the impending conflict for the presidency. That a settlement of the fishery question will be forced before the expiration of his present term there can be no doubt, and should the president put the power conferred upon him into operation the consequences to Canada will be of the most serious character.

Think They Will Have to Fight.

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 3.—At a public dinner of the Canadian society Tuesday night Col. George T. Denison, stipendiary police magistrate of this city and commander of the governor general's bodyguard, a military cavalry regiment, in responding to the toast, "The Army and Navy," said: "Canada is entering upon a great crisis. I tell you things are crowding upon us very fast. We shall probably soon be called on—I mean those of us who are loyal to the British flag—to defend the life of the country."

PISTOLS FOR TWO.

Hot Words Pass Between Rival Candidates at Louisville, Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 3.—At a joint debate between Asher Caruth, present Democratic congressman from this district, and candidate for re-election, and Hon. A. E. Willson, Republican candidate for congress, in this city Thursday night, Mr. Willson in closing the debate stated that Mr. Caruth voted against an amendment to the Mills bill providing that three-times as much duty be imposed on imported convict-made goods as upon the product of free labor, when Mr. Caruth interrupted Mr. Willson, calling him a d—d liar.

An exciting scene ensued, Republicans and Democratic members of the audience advancing to the support of their candidates and a riot was imminent, which was prevented by the prompt action of the chief of police, who with a strong detail took possession of the stage, and kept the rival candidates apart. After the officers' interference Mr. Caruth applied epithets denigratory of Mr. Willson, which the latter will be compelled to notice.

Cyclone in Iowa.

LAPORTE, Iowa, Nov. 3.—A cyclone struck this place at 9 o'clock Thursday night, coming from the northwest. Union hall was demolished and a large number of houses were unroofed and blown down, sections of the buildings being carried many blocks away. Great loss has been occasioned to merchants; I. C. Hays & Walker, C. H. Brust, Walker & Ashley and L. Conrights are all moving stocks as the buildings are shattered and flooded. The residence of Sanders Walker was blown to atoms and the children rolled about on the ground. The mother was seriously hurt. No other injuries are reported. The loss on property is $75,000. Reports of damage are coming from all sections of the country.

A Detective Shot By His Wife.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Detective Jake Lowenstein, the well known officer at the East Chicago avenue station, was fatally shot early Friday morning by his wife at 135 Wells street. The deed was the result of several quarrels which the couple have been having for some time. Friday morning, it is said, the quarrel was resumed, whereupon the woman pulled out a revolver and fired five shots at her husband. One passed through the left side of his head just above the ear, and came out at the right side. This will in all probability prove fatal. Another bullet grazed his breast and another struck the thumb on his right hand. Mrs. Lowenstein was arrested.

Demerit Booth Willing to Settle.

RACINE, Wis., Nov. 3.—Walter A. Booth, the defaulting secretary and bookkeeper of the Fish Brothers' Wagon company, when he left, took his twelve-year-old son with him. Yesterday the son returned, bringing two letters with him, one to the bank, telling the officers to fix up his accounts, and that if they were not all right his wife would fix them. The other was to the firm, telling them that his shortage was only a few hundred dollars, and that he would be back before long and square up with them. Young Booth will say nothing of his father's whereabouts.

Freight Wreck.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., Nov. 3.—A passenger engine on the Lehigh Valley railroad ran into a westbound coal train at South Plainfield Thursday evening. The passenger engine and a dozen of the coal cars were wrecked. Superintendent Donnelly, of the Lehigh Valley road, was on the engine. His skull was fractured and he lies in a critical condition. The engineer and fireman jumped, escaping uninjured. Travel was delayed several hours.

A Town Almost Destroyed By Fire.

MONTICELLO, Ill., Nov. 3.—The town of Delano, this county, was almost destroyed by fire Wednesday morning. Several stores and workshops were burned. Total loss about $2,600; insurance about half.

Man is an Enigma from His Birth to His Death; one thinks to understand him by dissection; a child breaks his toy to see what is inside.—Carmen Sylva.

TERRIFIC MILLER EXPLOSION.

Five Men Instantly Killed and a Number of Others Injured.

READING, Pa., Nov. 3.—A frightful and fatal boiler explosion occurred near State hall, this county, at 6 o'clock Friday morning. A traction engine used for thrashing on the farm of Jonas Spayd, exploded its boiler, hurling destruction in every direction. Five persons were instantly killed and three others were probably fatally injured.

The killed are:

William Reber, aged sixteen years.

Joseph Machemer, aged fourteen years.

John Marberger, aged sixteen years.

Joseph Spayd, aged thirty-five years.

Iram Dunkelberger.

The injured are:

Joseph Kiesel, George Himmerschitzer, and several others whose names have not yet been learned.

Young Machemer was blown through the weatherboarding of the barn and crushed beyond recognition. George Himmerschitzer was thrown one hundred yards by the force of the explosion, and cannot live. The explosion was heard for miles around and in a short time several hundred persons had congregated about the scene. The cause of the explosion is not definitely known.

George Himmerschitzer, one of the injured men, was the owner of the engine. Minnie Baer, aged ten years, had her head crushed and it is feared she will die. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict of accidental death without inquiring into the cause of the explosion.

FIGHT WITH OYSTER PIRATES.

A Pitched Battle Raging on the Chesapeake Bay.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 3.—A pitched battle took place Thursday between the state police sloop Mary Compton and a fleet of 400 dredging vessels. The fight started Wednesday afternoon, when the police boat discovered the dredge collecting oysters at Swan Point. This is forbidden ground, but that fact did not deter the pirates. The Compton opened fire, but the dredgers stood their ground and fired back, finally compelling the war vessels to give way. A ringing cheer followed the defeated captain, who soon returned, however, reinforced by the steamer McLane. The dredgers could not stand the combined attack, and sullenly withdrew, but not for long. Before morning they had all returned, provided with lots of ammunition and ready to fight the whole navy. The Compton had also fixed herself, and was in condition to declare war.

At dawn she again made for the dredgers, and then ensued one of the liveliest fights ever witnessed on the Chesapeake. Bullets flew like hail and the riggings of some of the vessels were soon filled with holes. The dredgers tried to capture the sloop, and once came near boarding the enemy, but they were finally beaten off. The cannon of the Compton played and in voice with the wood work of the dredgers, and when last heard from several of the dredgers were wrecked. At 5 o'clock in the evening the battle was still raging. It is not yet known how many were hurt.

MILITARY ACADEMY BURNED.

Highland Park, Illinois, Visited By a Hundred Thousand Dollar Fire.

HIGHLAND PARK, Ill., Nov. 3.—At noon Thursday fire started on the roof of the large three story building known as Highland hall and occupied by the Northwestern Military academy. The wind was blowing a gale, and the flames were soon beyond control. The town has no fire apparatus, and the people could do nothing but save the furniture on the lower floors. The gale blew big cinders all over the town, and a general conflagration was barely averted. The residence of H. C. Sampson, quite a distance from the academy, caught fire and was damaged, and the residence of Professor Elisha Grady barely escaped destruction.

Col. Lyster, with about forty men from the military reservation at Highland, went to the rescue, and by well directed efforts succeeded in saving much of the surrounding property. Few of the forty students succeeded in saving anything. The loss on the building and contents is about $100,000; insurance, $30,000. Other losses are about $10,000; insured.

A Chicago Striker Killed.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—About 9:30 o'clock Thursday night, as car No. 10, of the Garfield avenue and State street line, was passing Center and Ogden streets, John Miller, a striker, wearing a driver's badge of the North Chicago City Railroad company, threw a stone at the car. The missile struck the driver, and, glancing off, struck the car window. Officer Patrick Rice was on the car, and, jumping off, fired a shot after Miller, who started to run away. Just after the shot was fired Miller disappeared, and was afterward found in a hole with his neck broken. When found he had a bullet wound in his right leg, and his pockets were filled with stones. It is supposed he fell while making his escape from the officer.

Illegal Registration in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The police canvass of the registered voters has been completed, and as a result 750 warrants have been obtained for the arrest of persons illegally registered. The warrants were on Superintendent Murray's desk this morning stacked three feet high. More have been applied for, and it is estimated that the number will probably reach a thousand. The police inspectors and captains of all the precincts were in the superintendent's room this morning, and in a short address the superintendent informed them that he expected them to hunt down and arrest every person against whom a warrant has been issued before election day and prevent them from voting.

Planing Mill Destroyed.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Nov. 3.—Fire yesterday morning destroyed the planing mill and sash door and blind factory of E. M. Fish & Company. Loss, $10,000; insurance, $3,500. Cause of fire unknown.

Farmer Falls Dead.

WOOSTER, O., Nov. 3.—As Christian Whitman, aged eighty-two years, was walking to his farm, in Chippewa township, Thursday, he fell dead, one of his arteries having burst.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
 Proprietors.

SATURDAY EVE., NOV. 3, 1888.

Let every Democrat vote as early as possible Tuesday morning. It is very important.

If the negroes are not slaves to the Republicans, they will teach that party a lesson next Tuesday not soon to be forgotten.

Are the negroes freemen or bond slaves to the Republican bosses? That is the question for them to consider next Tuesday.—Exchange.

We urge every Democrat to vote early next Tuesday. It is important. It is also important to see that the full Democratic vote is polled.

The Democrats of Lewis should see that no Republican wire-worker carries any of the ballot-boxes away from the polls Tuesday as was done 1886.

If any colored man desires to vote for Mr. Paynter Tuesday he can do so and the the Republican bosses will need never be any wiser. No one has a right to examine your ballot.

If any colored citizen wishes to vote the Democratic ticket next Tuesday, let him do so fearlessly. There are enough Democrats in Mason to protect him from abuse, and he can rely on being protected.

If the people of Maysville want a convincing argument in favor of tariff reform let them look at the condition of the employees of the Maysville Cotton Mills, one of the boasted "protected" industries of this country.

From the space the Maysville Republican devotes to Rev. R. W. Christian in to-day's issue one might conclude that the colored Democrat is the "main issue" in this campaign. That West-Murchison letter is nowhere.

If there is any one who ought to support the Democratic nominees and the cause of tariff reform next Tuesday, it is the voter who works in the Maysville Cotton Mills at the miserably low wages paid in that industry.

We trust our references to the Maysville Cotton Mills will not be misunderstood. We only want to show how the employees are protected into working at starvation wages. What a blessing the high tariff is to these employees.

The Maysville Republican is silent as to our charges that the wages paid the employees of the Maysville cotton mills are lower than the wages paid the employees of such mills in low tariff England. Our charge is unanswerable.

Said a gentleman of this city yesterday: "I know fellows who have been working in the Maysville Cotton Mills for years for about $4.50 a week—able-bodied men." If a high tariff insures high wages, such men as these ought to get better pay.

Elsewhere you will see where a minister of this city tells of a family of six who work in the Maysville Cotton Mills for a total of $7.15 a week. Here is a condition of affairs in this high tariff country of ours much worse than can found in low tariff England.

In the last two Congressional elections, the vote has been very close, and in the present contest, Paynter's election may depend on the majority the Democracy of Mason County gives him. Knowing these things, no Democrat should stay away from the polls.

Said a minister of this city: "My church helps to support many of the hands employed in the cotton mills. We paid out over one hundred dollars this way last year."

Protected industry! Starvation wages! Vote the Democratic ticket next Tuesday and aid in the effort to cheapen the necessities of life.

The high tariff seems to have got the employees of the Maysville Cotton Mills down to starvation wages. And the owners of these mills still want more "protection." It looks like their employees need some legislation to give them cheaper necessities of life. The Mills bill proposes to give them this relief and they should vote for the Democrats and thus aid in passing the measure.

MAYSVILLE has furnished her share of Democratic speakers in the present campaign. Every Democrat in that city who could come away near making a speech has been going about over the district preaching Democracy and working hard in the behalf of Hon. Thomas Paynter.—Dover News.

You're mistaken, neighbor. A good many of our speakers have been on the stump, but the reserve hasn't been called on. We are solid for Paynter, though, and Mason will roll up an old-time majority Tuesday.

The Country's Progress Under a Low Tariff and a High Tariff.

Following is a table compiled by Professor Phillipot, of Iowa, from the U. S. census, and it shows in figures the rate of prosperity of the people under the low tariff from 1850-60 compared with the average rate of prosperity under our existing "protective" tariff from 1860-80, in twelve lines of progress, covering all the ground concerned in an inquiry into the prosperity of the people. It is expressed in terms of per centum of increase, because it can thus be easily grasped by the mind and is mathematically a most correct method of expression:

Lines of Progress.	1850-60	1860-80
Wealth.....	12.4	61.4
Foreign commerce, aggregate.....	131.9	45.6
Foreign commerce, per capita.....	70.3	15.2
Railroads, aggregate.....	249.0	69.0
Railroads, per capita.....	12.0	34.0
Capital in manufactures.....	8.9	65.0
Wages in manufactures, aggregate.....	60.3	58.2
Wages in manufactures, per hand.....	17.3	9.4
Products.....	85.0	69.6
Value of farms.....	163.7	27.6
Farm tools and machinery.....	62.0	27.7
Live stock on farms.....	100.0	17.3

Total per cent. increase.....1235.5 490.6
 The above is taken from an article written for the BULLETIN by the late Dr. R. N. Taylor, of Tollesboro. If the U. S. census counts for anything these figures prove beyond a shadow of doubt that the progress of this country was greater and more wonderful under a system of low tariff—from 1850 to 1860—than under the extremely high tariff that has since prevailed.

We ask all to carefully study the above figures before voting next Tuesday.

Six Hands—$7.15 a Week.

A minister of this city said to the BULLETIN yesterday: "My church has to help support many of the employees of the Maysville Cotton Mill every winter. I know one family consisting of a widow and five children who work in this mill. ALL SIX OF THEM RECEIVE BUT $7.15 A WEEK. There is another widow with a son about nineteen years old and a daughter about twelve. These children worked in the mill, and the two got LESS THAN $3.50 A WEEK. This family had to move away from here a few days ago because they couldn't live on what they earned." Such is the information given us by this preacher. Voters should remember that these wages are paid in one of the boasted protected industries of this country. Does high tariff insure high wages?

Twenty Cents a Day.

Elsewhere you will see where a minister tells about a family of six who work in the cotton mills for $7.15 a week. By a little calculation it will be seen that the average weekly wages of these six hands is LESS THAN $1.20. There are six working days in a week, and a little further calculation shows that these six hands each get LESS THAN TWENTY CENTS A DAY! And they work even and a half hour a day.

And yet Hon. Robert A. Cochran, one of the owners of these mills, talks about "protection to home industries!" And Republicans talk about "the pauper labor of free trade England!"

And Republicans tell us a high tariff makes high wages.

Vote the Democratic ticket and for tariff reform.

American Versus European Wages.

The average American workman performs from one and one-half to twice as much work as the average European workman.—[Wm. M. Farris, report as Secretary of State in the Hayes Administration, May 17, 1879.]

Undoubtedly the inequalities in the wages of English and American operatives are more than equalized by the greater efficiency of the latter and their LONGER HOURS OF LABOR.—[James G. Blaine, report as Secretary of State in the Garfield administration, June 25, 1881.]

Join the Process Next Monday.

Democrats of the surrounding country are cordially invited to come in next Monday evening and take part in the parade. A large crowd on horseback are expected to be a feature of the procession. Another feature of the parade will be a company of the juvenile Democrats of this city, headed by Master "Dimple" Wheatley.

Hon. C. J. Bronston, of Lexington, and Hon. J. D. Kehoe will be the speakers of the occasion.

Hendrick at the Court House.

The only opportunity the people of this city will have to hear that brilliant young orator, Hon. W. J. Hendrick, in the present campaign will be this evening. He will speak at the court house on this occasion, and the simple announcement of this fact ought to insure a big crowd. All are cordially invited. Mr. Charles B. Poyntz, of this city, will also address the meeting.

Colored Man Made Rich Down South.

Amos Marsh, an old colored man, living on Bell street, who does odd jobs around the city, has just drawn $15,000 in the Louisiana State Lottery. In July he and a friend invested $1 each in tickets for the monthly drawing, which took place August 7th. Last week Marsh learned that his ticket, which was 3,694, had drawn one-twentieth of the capital prize of $300,000, making his share $15,000. He placed the ticket in the hands of Adams Express Company for collection. Marsh has a large family and is poor.—Orange (N. J.) Chronicle, Aug. 23.

Judge Thomas' Taffy to Colored Voters.

The Republicans of Fleming must be awfully scared up over the colored voter. During his recent speech at Flemingsburg, Judge Thomas is reported to have said:

The proudest vote of my life was cast for Abraham Lincoln. The next proudest was for the negro Asbury. When I went to the polls I said to the clerk: "Stop, cast my vote for the negro first." I then felt I was a good Republican, but when attending that grand Republican convention in Chicago I walked into the Palmer House with my friend Captain Culbertson. I walked into the dining room with him and looking around I saw sitting at one table four of the blackest negroes I ever saw. I said to my friend, Captain Culbertson, "come, here is the place for us." And when I had finished eating with those negroes I felt I was a thorough Republican.

GRAND RALLY.

Preparations in Progress for the Big Parade Monday—A Large Crowd Expected.

Grand Marshal and Assistants Appointed—The Line of March.

The grand rally of the Democrats next Monday evening—the last of the campaign—promises to be a big thing in the way of political demonstrations.

Preparations for the parade are in progress. At a meeting last night at the County Clerk's office a line of march was mapped out and officers appointed. The procession will form at the Market street esplanade at 6:30 p. m. The line of march is as follows: West on Third to Wall, north on Wall to Second, east on Second to Bridge, south on Bridge to Third, west on Third to Market, thence to the court house, where speeches will be made by Hon. J. D. Kehoe, Hon. C. J. Bronston, the brilliant orator, from Lexington, and others.

Grand Marshal, D. Hechinger; Assistants: D. C. Frazee, George Rogers, John C. Adamson, Phister Wallace, John W. Alexander, C. B. Poyntz, J. C. Everett, Chris Russell, G. S. Wall, E. W. Fitzgerald, Chan Jefferson, R. L. Baldwin, Asberry Thomas, L. Zech, Martin A. O'Hare and Fox Respass. The aids are to receive instructions from the Grand Marshal.

The procession will move at 7 o'clock promptly, and all Democrats are cordially invited to take part as this should be the banner rally of the campaign. The Folsom Club of Chester will come down one hundred and twenty-five or one hundred and fifty strong. They have engaged the Big Six Band of the Fifth ward. The Rough and Ready Democratic Club of Plumville are coming in forty or fifty strong on horseback. Reports from Lewisburg and Washington indicate that large delegations can be expected from those places. The Lawrence Creek Bandana Club have taken the matter in hand, and will be on hand in full force. Charleston Bottom, one of the strongholds of the Democracy, ought to send in a delegation of fifty or one hundred on horseback. So ought Jersey Ridge, another Democratic stronghold. Remember, all Democrats of the surrounding country are cordially invited, and they are asked to come in on horseback. Squads of ten, twenty's and thirty's should be formed wherever no club has been organized. The Leedom Club and all other Democrats of Aberdeen and vicinity are also invited. Those intending to take part should report to Grand Marshal Hechinger as early as possible.

Haucke's Reed and Brass Band has been engaged by the Democrats of this city for the occasion, and there will be lots of music in the air.

A cannon has been secured and will awake the echoes of the surrounding hills. Let all unite and make the demonstration equal to any of the past.

There will be no torches, as the matter was decided on too late to secure them. Transparencies, however, are in order.

Money Talks.

A responsible citizen wants to bet $2,000 to $1,500 or $1,000 to $750 that Cleveland will be elected. No bluff. The bet can be closed in ten minutes, if application is made during banking hours. Call at this office.

Another responsible citizen is anxious to put up $250 to $175 that Cleveland will win. Let Republicans put up or shut up.

THE FASHION SUNK.

Strikes the Bank During a Storm and Goes Down in Twenty Feet of Water.

Will Probably Prove a Total Loss. Rumor that Two of the Crew Were Drowned.

The steamer Fashion was sunk just above Manchester Island last night and will likely prove a total loss.

She is a sternwheeler, and has been plying in the Cincinnati and Pittsburgh trade, having taken the place of the Emma Graham, which was sunk a few years ago.

The accident last evening occurred about 7 o'clock. The steamer was on her down trip. When approaching Pence's Landing, she was struck by the heavy wind and rain storm. In the darkness that prevailed, the boat was slowed up, it is claimed, but the pilot must have lost his bearings as he was on the Kentucky bank ere he was aware of any danger. The steamer struck the shore with terrible force, knocking down the chimneys.

The engines had been reversed, and in the excitement that ensued she was backed away from the bank. It was at once seen that she was sinking. She went to the bottom in less than five minutes—one report is that she sank in three minutes. The opinion is that she was broken in two.

The wreck lies in about twenty feet of water, with the stern nearest the Kentucky shore, only part of the hurricane roof showing above the waves.

Fortunately all the passengers were saved. It is rumored that two of the deck crew, however, were lost. The boat and freight will prove almost a total loss.

The Cooking Club.

Despite the heavy rain of last night quite a number of young people attended another of those enjoyable entertainments given under the auspices of the "Cooking Club," at the home of Miss Nan Burgess, of West Third street. A most pleasant evening was passed, the watchful hostesses making every one have a good time. The following were present: Miss Robinson, of Falmoth, Misses Hattie Albert, Lucy Watson, Addie Campbell, Ida Power, Jennie Frazee, Mary Wheatley, Anna Darnall, Anna McDougale, Lizzie Wood, Lizzie Cox-Dobyns. Messrs. Lloyd Watson, Will Cochran, Neal Leach, Will Wood, Thomas Phister, Clarence Dobyns, Enoch Powell, Clarence Mathews, Harry McDougale, Oscar McDougale, H. C. Curran, S. L. THE CZAR'S VISIT.

German Newspapers Greatly Worried Over Its Import.

IT IS BELIEVED THAT RUSSIA SERIOUSLY CONTEMPLATES WAR.

The Balkan Question Liable to Be Re-opened and a Final Settlement Made According to Russia's Dictation—Other Dispatches From Over the Ocean.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Some of the German newspapers are gravely questioning the import of the czar's recent visit to Sevastopol. They intimate that some motive, more important than a merely friendly visit of the sovereign, underlies the apparent reason for the journey. A journey too, fraught with danger, from which the czar miraculously escaped, but which he must have known menaced him. These papers reason that he would not have undertaken the trip if his business had not been important.

Attention is drawn to the significance of a former visit to Sevastopol, when upon the czar's return to the capital, war was declared upon Turkey. The czar reviewed on this occasion his Black Sea fleet, which contains some of the finest Russian war vessels, and found this division of the navy in a satisfactory condition. The German papers, while they do not speak plainly on the subject, intimate that the czar has been estimating his strength with a view of opening the Balkan question, and insisting upon a settlement of this vexed controversy. Some strength is afforded to this view from the fact that among the czar's traveling companions on this journey were the Russian minister of war, and minister of marine.

Germany begins to feel uneasy over the gathering strength of Russia, and Emperor William and Chancellor Bismarck have become very anxious about the effectiveness of the triple alliance. The czar knows as well as Bismarck that Germany can place no real reliance upon Austria, divided as that empire is by sectional feuds and race hatred. In Transylvania alone are over two million Hungarians who are strongly pro-Russian in their opinions and feelings, and in case of a war concerning Bulgaria, would undoubtedly turn against the alliance and offer their services to Russia. They have been flattered by the Austrian empire, which has broken up all their clubs and introduced the German language into their schools.

There are also the Czechs, who have the same grievances to allege against the empire, and who in case of war could not be depended upon to support the alliance. Emperor William, it is evident is aware of this, and to this knowledge is attributed his latest efforts to form a compact of some nature with England, which would give him greater assurance against a possible war with his northern neighbor.

Rioting in County Cork.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—A severe riot occurred at Middleton, County Cork, last evening. A man under arrest was rescued from the police by the mob. The latter were severely stoned and finally driven into a shop, where they were besieged until the arrival of reinforcements. Several of the police were seriously injured, as was also a civilian named Naving.

Apologized for Rudeness.

BELGRADE, Nov. 3.—During a torchlight procession in this city last night, stones were thrown at the windows of the Austrian legation, some of which were broken. Numerous arrests have been made in connection with the incident. The Serbian government has tendered apologies to the Austrian minister for the rudeness.

THANKSGIVING.

President Cleveland Issues His Annual Proclamation to That Effect.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The president has issued the following proclamation:

"Constant thanksgiving and gratitude are due from the American people to Almighty God for His goodness and mercy, which have followed them since the day He made them a nation and vouchsafed to them a free government. With loving kindness He has constantly led us in the way of prosperity and greatness. He has not visited with swift punishments our short comings, but with gracious care He has warned us of our dependence upon His forbearance and has taught us that obedience to His holy law is the price of a continuance of His precious gifts.

"In acknowledgment of all that God has done for us as a nation, and to the end that on an appointed day the united prayers and praise of a grateful country may reach the throne of grace, I, Grover Cleveland, president of the United States, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, the twenty-ninth day of November instant, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, to be kept and observed throughout the land.

"On that day let all our people suspend their ordinary work and occupations and in their accustomed places of worship, with prayer and songs of praise, render thanks to God for all His mercies, for the abundant harvests which have rewarded the toil of the husbandman during the year that has passed, and for the rich rewards that have followed the labors of our people in their shops and their marts of trade and traffic. Let us give thanks for peace and for social order and contentment within our borders, and for our advancement in all that adds to National greatness.

"And, mindful of the afflictive dispensation with which a portion of our land has been visited, let us, while we humble ourselves before the power of God, acknowledge His mercy in setting bounds to the deadly march of pestilence, and let our hearts be chastened by sympathy with our fellow-countrymen who have suffered and who mourn.

"And, as we return thanks for all the blessings which we have received from the hands of our Heavenly Father, let us not forget that He has enjoined upon us charity; and on this day of thanksgiving let us generously remember the poor and needy, so that our tribute of praise and gratitude may be acceptable in the sight of the Lord.

"Done at the city of Washington on the first day of November, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, and in the year of independence of the United States the one hundred and thirtieth.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"GROVER CLEVELAND.
By the president: T. F. BAYARD, secretary of state."

SORROW AND HAPPINESS.

A Marriage Ceremony Performed Over the Coffin of the Bride's Father.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Seven years ago John Jaeger, Jr., in Brooklyn, was married at the bedside of his dying mother, and Thursday his sister Emma was married in the same house, at the side of the coffin in which lay the remains of her father. The Rev. R. Wagner performed the ceremony in both instances. The young lady had been engaged for nine years, and the wedding was set for Thursday, the friends being gathered and the feast ready. Wednesday night her father died suddenly of apoplexy, and Thursday the parlor, which was decorated for wedding festivities, was entirely altered by the presence in the middle room of a casket containing the dead man.

The death left the young woman without a protector or a close relative, and as there was a considerable estate to be settled her friends advised an immediate marriage. The pastor and young couple, accompanied by witnesses, entered the chamber of death. The bride was stationed at the right of the casket and the groom at the left. Both looked on the pallid face of the deceased and the bride carefully pressed her lips to those of the inanimate form. Hands were then joined across the coffin, the service proceeded, the wedding ring placed on the girl's finger, and the couple were pronounced man and wife. The friends then advanced and tearfully tendered congratulations to the wedded pair. This occupied but a few moments and then the pastor began the funeral ceremony. This concluded, the body was borne to the hearse, and mourners and wedding guests entered the carriages and the funeral cortege proceeded on its way to Cypress Hill cemetery.

Weather Crop Bulletin.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The weather crop bulletin issued by the signal office says: The weather has been generally favorable for farm work in the winter wheat states, and the rain fall for the month has doubtless affected the winter wheat crop favorably. The rain in the southern portion of the gulf states has improved the condition of crops in that section, although the reports indicate that generally the weather for the season has not been favorable for the cotton crop.

Lost Playing Pin Pool.

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 3.—Louis H. Sloaner, the Sioux City defaulter, who was arrested here on Monday night, has decided not to fight extradition, and will return voluntarily to Sioux City to stand his trial for forgery. He gave up about $900—all the money he had. Sloaner says he lost the money he embezzled in playing pin pool, and the detective who is here to secure his extradition, thinks it can be recovered from those who won it.

Railway for Chile.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Conveys & Lewis, the well-known contractors of public works, have contracted to build and equip 150 miles of railways in Chile at $45,000 per mile, and the contract has been approved by the Chilean congress. French, English and Canadian syndicates were anxious to secure the work, which involves the construction of an immense quantity of rolling stock and other material.

Latest From the Pole Country.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Nov. 3.—Advises from San Francisco report the arrival of bark Lydia and Northern Light, the last named with five whines, from the Arctic ocean. No news from the ships reported frozen up is given, as the Northern Light left that ocean at the same time as the bark J. A. Howland, which brought the first intelligence.

J. JAMES WOOD.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—A Tribune special from Cleveland, O., says: "A rather sensational side issue in the Axworthy case has turned up. The examination of the city's accounts shows a deficit of nearly $17,000 in the treasurer's accounts between 1880 and 1883. This involves S. T. Everett, a prominent politician and vice president of the Union National bank. The mayor has ordered the city solicitor to serve notice on Everett to make good the shortage. That gentleman is in New York on a mysterious errand, and turns out that last week he resigned the vice presidency of the Union National bank for the ostensible reason that he was on the Republican ticket as a presidential elector.

Dry Goods Store Robbed.
CINCINNATI, Nov. 3.—The dry goods store of Tobie & Myers, at Florence, Ky., about eight miles back of Covington, was robbed of $2,000 worth of flannels, jeans, blankets, ribbons and other goods, last night. The thieves evidently used wagons to carry away their plunder. There is very little clue at this hour. The police authorities at Erlanger were notified, and also the chief of police at Cincinnati. The firm has offered a liberal reward for the capture of the thieves and the return of the goods. This is the biggest robbery that has taken place at Florence for some years.

Mrs. President Hayes on Home Missions.
BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The seventh annual convention of the Woman's Home Missionary society was opened with a large attendance. Mrs. Rutherford B. Hayes, of Fremont, O., occupied the chair, and, as president of the society, read her annual report, summarizing the work of the society, and expressing the belief that the outlook was encouraging. Money and effort were, however, needed to make the work all that it should be.

Brothers Shooting at Each Other.
CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Thursday evening John and Peter Hill, brothers, quarreled over the setting up of a saloon partnership. Each drew a revolver and began shooting. Both fired wild, and Conrad Wilder, a bystander, received a bullet in his groin, that will probably cause his death. Peter Hill escaped, but John, who is believed to have fired the shot that struck Wilder, is under arrest.

An Intruder Instantly Killed.
REED CITY, Mich., Nov. 3.—Alexander St. Charles, aged thirty-three, while drunk, attempted to enter the Mrs. Ferguson's residence Thursday night, when Frank Walker shot and instantly killed him.

If You Are Sick
With Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Hyperaemia, Biliousness, Blood Humors, Kidney Disease, Constipation, Female Troubles, Fever and Ague, Sleeplessness, Partial Paralysis, or Nervous Prostration, use Paine's Celery Compound and be cured. In each of these the cause is mental or physical overwork, anxiety, exposure or malaria, the effect of which is to weaken the nervous system, resulting in one of these diseases. Remove the cause with that great Nerve Tonic, and the result will disappear.

Paine's Celery Compound
Jas. L. Bowen, Springfield, Mass., writes:—
"Paine's Celery Compound cannot be excelled as a Nerve Tonic. In my case it single bottle wrought a great change. My nervousness entirely disappeared, and with it the resulting affection of the stomach, heart and liver, and the whole tone of the system was wonderfully invigorated. I tell my friends, if sick as I have been, Paine's Celery Compound."

Will Cure You!
